

Texas, Nowhere Left To Hide

I see the light of morning
There's nowhere left to hide
Inside I feel my thoughts are turning

Because lately I'm feeling that I needed you
To help me decide what I should or shouldn't do
Should I say yes, or will I say no
I need you here to let me know

Yeah I guess my world is changing
Oooh It's time that I was moving
And yes, I guess it's that I'm feeling

Because lately I'm feeling that I needed you
To help me decide what I should or shouldn't do
Should I say yes, or will I say no
I need you here to let me know

Yeah I guess my world is changing

I see the light of morning
Inside I feel my thoughts are turning

Because lately I'm feeling that I needed you
To help me decide what I should or shouldn't do
Should I say yes, or will I say no
I need you here to let me know

Yeah I guess my world is changing
Yeah I guess my world is changing
Yeah I guess my world is changing
