

Texas, Strange That I Want You

Strange that I want you more than I need you
It's strange that I feel this way now

Well you live each day with nothing but freedom
You don't want to change
Are you scared that you'll please me
You should try to understand
Not giving in don't make a man

Strange that I want you more than I need you
It's strange that I feel this way now

I don't want to stay in one place forever
You've got a chance, we could leave here together
Now I know you understand that you grab life with both hands

Strange that I want you more than I need you
It's strange that I feel this way now

You still live each day with nothing but freedom
No you haven't changed, changed just to please me
And I know you understand not giving in don't make a man

Strange that I want you more than I need you
It's strange that I feel this way now
Strange that I love you more than I want to
It's strange that I feel this way now
Strange that I want you more than I need you
It's strange that I feel this way now
