

Texas, Tell Me Why

Even now I can see that day
The fear in your eyes
Tell me why
Were you so afraid

Somethings they turn out this way
Fire the bullet and find
That you don't know what you left behind
When we laid you to rest

Tell me why were you so afraid
Tell me why were you so afraid

You walk this line
You walk this line of hate
Where to people are so blind
Blind to the evil it creates
Never say to much
Never think out loud

Tell me why were you so afraid
Tell me why were you so afraid

I know one day you'll find a way
To heal the wounds
I know one day you'll find a way
To heal the wounds

Tell me why were you so afraid

Even now I can see that day
The fear in your eyes
You gave all you lived for
Whilst you kept your pride

Tell me why were you so afraid
Tell me why were you so afraid
