

That Dog, I'm Gonna See You

We'll have lots of bail
Tons of trail mix
'cause we're setting out to sail
Courageously
You and me.

We'll have lots of love
For both of us
And none of the above
The waste activity
You and me.

I'm gonna see you in the morning
I'm gonna see you when you're uptight
I'm gonna see you when you're boring
I'm gonna see you every night.
I'm gonna see you every night.

We'll having wedding dreams
And baby seats
And family gatherings
Eternally
You and me.

We'll have visits small
Long-distance calls
And meetings in bathroom stalls
And fantasy
You and me.

I'm gonna see you in the morning
I'm gonna see you when you're uptight
I'm gonna see you when you're boring
I'm gonna see you every night
I'm gonna see you every night.
I'm gonna see you every night
