

The 69 Eyes, Beneath The Blue

Some were born to light
Some into the endless night baby
Every man's got to find
What's there behind
The silver side now baby

Would you take me tonight
Back into the garden of delight
Don't let the promise in your eyes
Ever stop burning up so bright

Sunlight in your hair
Those who live are those who dare

I'm coming back
For you
Beneath the blue

Some hearts born to cry
Some into the endless lie baby
Every man's got to find
What's there behind
The lonely side now baby

Would you take me tonight
Back into the gentle grace of your light
Don't let story in your eyes
Ever stop burning up so bright

Sunlight in your hair
Those who live are those who dare

I'm coming back
For you
Beneath the blue
