

The 69 Eyes, Lazarus Heart

Everytime you need me.
I'll be there for you.
Showing out no mercy 'til the fire's been burning thru.
Sailing down all the evening.
Until the river ends.
Just a calm before the storm.
On the sea of love my friend.

Maybe I just can't help.
The way I should or will.
Maybe I just can't no more resurrect my heart.
Just like before.

I wish I could remember.
The first moment and day.
To live it again all over.
Never let it go, never slip away.
Should I just forget now?
How does it feel like then?
What if I never had the chance to be in love again?

Maybe I just can't help.
The way I should or will.
Maybe I just can't go on,
when all your love is gone.
Maybe I just can't help.
The way I should or will.
Maybe I just can't no more resurrect my heart.
Just like one thousand times before.
