

The 6ths, He Didn't

Will you dance with me
Take my hands and lead me
With all my faults

In the ballroom waltz
That we might have done had we ever been young

It'll end in tears
...but not for years
If you dance with me

Will you dance with me
Me, with two left feet
You'd be showing me how

I'm no dancer now
But soon you and I
Could step into the sky

We'll go down in flames
Of course, but love remains
If you dance with me

I'll make only sunny weather for you
The sky will be blue forever
I'll make only sunny weather for you
To keep me and you together

And you'll dance with me
In the rain, maybe
But we won't really mind

In the end we'll find
It was just a dance
And our little romance

It'll fall to dust
...but only just
If you dance with me

It'll fall to dust
...but only just
If you dance with me
