

The A.K.A.S, Paranoia Is A Skill

Is this the place, the place I wake up everyday?
Is this the face, the face I fake everyday?
Is this the way I comb my hair, is this the way I wear my clothes?
Is this the way is this the way?
Is this the way I, I, I I'm under surveillance.
You've been watching me all day.
Who am I, what's my name? I'm under surveillance.
Scribbled on the back of a Polaroid.
Cover my tracks cuz I'm paranoid.
Is this the way that I've become?
Wiretaps, photographs like a loaded gun.
Is this the way I comb my hair, is this the way I wear my clothes?
Is this the way is this the way?
Is this the way I, I, I You're under surveillance.
You've been watching me all day.
Who am I, what's my name? You're under surveillance.
Someone's tapping my telephone.
Check, check on the microphone.
We're under surveillance.
