

The Adicts, Something You Need

Black holes in your space
Need a shining star in your repertoire
You seek the mirror
You know that
I've got something
Something you need
Solid gold in a void
The actions easy
When you're devoid
There's a killer in the house of dreams
wake up now
You're in a vacuum no air
Come up and see me if you dare
Breathe in breathe out
If you need me you can shout
I've got something
Something you need
