The Adicts, Youth

I never wanted to conform I never wanted a uniform Youth and me a perfect company A smile or two will get us through Youth and me perpetuity
A smile or two will get us through All I wanna, All I wanna All I want is youth I wish I was forever young (Daddy Look) Can it be my time has come (That's it) Youth can be a future for me The child will find his history Youth and me eternity Youth and me in perpetuity Am I just a peter pan Will I ever be a man If I could be just sweet sixteen Would I know what life could mean Youth and me the perfect company You and me in perpetuity
