

The Afghan Whigs, Gentlemen

Afghan Whigs, The
Gentlemen
Gentlemen
(dulli)

Your attention, please
Now turn off the light
Your infection, please
I haven't got all night

Understand, do you understand?
Understand, i'm a gentleman

I stayed in too long
But she was the perfect fit
And we dragged it out so long this time
Started to make each other sick
But now i've got time for you
For you, you, you and me too
Well, come and get it, come and get it
'cause i'm done

Understand, do you understand?
Understand, i'm a gentleman

I waited for the joke, it never did arrive
And words i thought i'd smoke
Let me in i'm cold
All messed up but nowhere to go
You got indecision, and indecision is my enemy
Unlock the cabinet, hey hey hey
I'll take whatever you got
Now i'm on it, now i'm on it
And you're done

I waited for the joke
It never did arrive
And words i thought i'd choke
I hardly recognize
