

The Agony Scene, Forever Abandoned

Wrists are severed
The deepest cuts are traced in red
So beautiful

The separation of her flesh
From the razor
Feeling a pain she's never known
Like broken glass

Draining the blood that's running cold
She tasted eternity
It's kiss like a last goodbye
As she's taken herself from me
Forever abandoned

Eyes held open
The bitter taste of blood and sweat
The emptiness
That suffocates a final breath
Endless silence
That dulls the pain beneath her skin

Her vacant eyes watching the blood that's running thin
She tasted eternity
It's kiss like a last goodbye
As she's taken herself from me
Forever abandoned
