

The Agony Scene, White Nights

Choke back the lies that you've been fed.
Bleed for your ignorance, suffer and die for it.
We are the dead, nothing left to bleed.
Too numb to feel a fucking thing, to blind to see.
They are the ones that took our eyes, forcing morality upon the masses longing to believe.
Their suffering was not entirely in vain.
Choke back the lies that you've been fed.
Bleed for your ignorance, suffer and die for it.
With every breath we pray to die.
Lost faith in God and suicide.
We've closed our eyes, now give us something to believe.
Our salvation, man made doctrine.
The blind will lead the blind into the open arms of Hell.
Choke back the lies that you've been fed.
Bleed for your ignorance, suffer and die for it.
