

The All-American Rejects, Fembot

Went to bed with a smile.
Bragged to my friends
for a little while.
And I wished for another date,
to sit with you dazin'.
I was in this state
of tossing and turning
not knowing what to do.
Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.
I know that it's real and it's no surprise.
To see that it's true I look into your eyes.
Yes, she changed me.
And now I'm not the same.
And I know just how I have a world when she says my name.

Now I see you every day.
I go out of my way just to see your face and school with you isn't the same.
Sleepless nights and our jokes are lame.
I am hoping and dreaming of another night like this.
Restless, and yearning for your sweet kiss.
I know that it's real. It's no surprise.
To see that it's true I look into your eyes.

Oh Yes, she change me,
Now I'm not the same.
I know now just how I have a world when she says my name.
She changed me and now im not the same.
And I know now just how I have a world
when she says my name.

Tossing and turning not knowing what to do.
Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.
I know that its real and its no surprise.
To see that its true I look into your eyes.
Yes, she changed me. A
And now I'm not the same.

Tossing and turning not knowing what to do.
Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.
I know that its real and its no surprise.
