

The All American Rejects, The Cigarette Song

Bring back the memories
This one's giving up on you
And time is giving up on you
And there's no more time
Forgive me one more time

Cause I don't want you
Away
Just bury me, I'm away

Whispered warning
Away
Just bury me, I'm away

And not a day has passed
That I'm regretting
The windows closed
And she's not letting me in

One breath, one place slipped away and
Missed calls, misgrace
I can't stay too late
She's gone
I will miss her voice, her eyes, and love's first kiss

I can't remind you all the time
Bring it back, bring it back
To where we were before
I can't remind you all the time
No, no
Bring it back, bring it back

One breath, one place slipped away
Missed calls, misgrace
I can't stay too late
She's gone
I will miss her voice, her eyes, and love's first kiss

The day is gone
The sky is blue
I know you're all alone
And the sky is blue
Come back to me
The sky is blue
The sky is blue
