

The Animals, River Deep, Mountain High

When you were a young girl did you have a rag doll the only doll you ever owned well you can treat me
the way you used to treat that rag doll but hurry up cause I'm gettin old and I get older baby, day by day and it gets stronger baby, let me say and it goes deeper baby, than you'll ever know stand back baby, and watch my love grow and do I love you, my oh my river deep, mountain high If I lost you would I cry bet your life, baby

when you a young girl did you have a puppet that always followed you around
the way you used to treat that puppet, baby I swear I'll neever put you down, no I won't and I get thankful baby, in every way and it gets less painful baby, let me say and I'm gona love you every night and day look out baby, my love way is comin' your way yes it is

and if I lost you would I cry
bet your life, baby

I love you baby like a flower needs the spring I love you baby like Aretha Franklin needs to sing and I love you baby like a schoolboy loves his partner I love you baby, river deep, mountain high well take it higher..higher..
