

The Arrogant Sons Of Bitches, So Let's Go Nowh

heh, heh, heh, heh, heh, heh, ha ha ha ha

the autumn came in like concrete at my face location hasn't changed but i'm not living in the same place

it's useless to respond respond to anything i've said i've said i hate to quote this song all wrong but why can't we still be friends aiming to upset me but you're baffling me with your actions i am wrong, you are wrong, we subdivide into two fractions it's made me retarded, i wish i didn't let it everything is upside down i want those times I can't forget everything is always falling apart

everything is always falling apart you know i'd amputate my flaws if it meant that I could be with you

how can i be so self important in the world today my disease of choice will be arriving soon anyway we justify our selfishness in every fucking fight and I hate to quote this song all wrong but it doesn't make it right fuck the world everything is breaking and changing and everything inside of me is breaking and changing why can't I ever let it go i concentrate real hard i might not ever even know that everything is always falling apart

everything is always falling apart i'd ignore my dreams in exchange for you being true it's going to rain tonight so everything is miserable smoke some more and then I'll go back in and hate it's going to rain tonight but it's got to stop eventually let's anticipate the sun and warmth and raise our fists and say everything is always falling apart, but I can't everything is always falling apart, but I can't everything is always falling apart (repeat) fell fast asleep woke up so easily let's make our dreams transcend reality let's not just seethe give up and go back to sleep

wake up!
don't fall apart
