

The Arrogant Sons Of Bitches, The Last Bell I Will

well i lied
i lied to you again i said i wanted to be friends i said that it would never end but i was out before it began i bit my nails and rode away i have been waiting for the day that it was the end the clouds grey covering the sky barely let the sun slip by at about 2:05

everyone was starting to cry there's nothing that needs more explaining you can't run my fucking life anymore i'm going home tonight to tear your pictures off the wall and i won't spend another night waiting for your precious telephone call i won't be sorry for anything i do because i live this life for me not you don't think that i'm gonna call you tomorrow to remember the days gone past 5 4 3 2 1 it's over and you can kiss my ass and if i never see you again that'll be too soon
