

The Ataris, Anderson

"What have I done, what have I got?
Your life is useless, your life is really shot.
Gun totin' losers, beer swillin' hicks,
Backwoods hilljacks, stupid teenage chicks

Hate it here, I hate it here, this Anderson hell
Life sucks but you're too blind to tell
Don't you know I really hate it here
And I will always hate it
Don't you know I really hate it here?

Who have you done, who have you got?
Your wife's a douchebag, your kid's a little fucking snot
Nothing to do, no place to go
You're so blind, you don't even know

Hate it here, I hate it here this Anderson hell
Life sucks but you're too blind to tell
Don't you know I really hate it
Oh yes I really hate it
I'd rather be anywhere but here

Will you ever get out or will you just die?
(Probably die)
I don't care anymore, or even want to try
Trailer park bred, fast food fed,
Forever K-Mart shopping, fucked in the head

Hate it here, I hate it here this Franklin (insert your town here) hell
Life sucks but you're too blind to tell
Don't you know I really hate it here-
Still I'll do nothing about it...
I'd rather be anywhere but fucking here"
