

The Ataris, Beautiful Mistake

Maybe I'm not ready for this
And you know it
Maybe I'm too scared to tell you
What I'm really thinking
It's not fair to stay together
Because of the regrets we might have

Don't want to fall asleep alone,
but do I want to wake up with you
I'm only trying to be completely honest

So I guess this is the ending
Of a beautiful mistake
And if we both agree that we shouldn't be Together why does it Hurt so much and I feel Like I lost my closest friend

Don't want to fall asleep alone,
but do I want to wake up with you
I hope your happy, and completely lonely

There I am, standing on all alone
On St. Lee Harbor bridge
And you know I would jump into
The fucking ocean
If it mean I was truly capable
Of being satisfied
Will I ever be Did I just give up the best thing I ever had

Don't want to fall asleep alone,
but do I want to wake up with you?
I hope your happy, and completely lonely
Don't want to fall asleep alone,
but do I want to wake up with you?
I'm only trying to be completely honest
