

The Ataris, Take Me Back

I am blue, the sky is grey
I guess it's better off that way
There's really not much left to say
I called you on the phone
Another guy said that you weren't at home
But I don't care I'll call you again anyway
Baby I'd give you the world...
Please forget about those fifteen other girls
I don't care what they say...
I didn't mean to stand you up on our wedding day
I'm sorry that I gave you that infection
And said we had sex on the Love Connection
Can I ever make it up to you?
I'm sorry that I made you mad
The things I did just didn't seem that bad...
Except for maybe when I blew up your car
Oh baby what can I do???
Every girl I'm with makes me think of you
I call your name in my sleep
Too bad you think that I'm a creep
Please take me back... (x5)
