

The Autumn Offering, Walk The Line

Witness this fallen soldier
Fall back to me
I hear your screams
Head held high
Above the
This face on unknown terror
I see your
I feel your horror

Walk the line
Just once last time
Can't see at all
I watch them fall

Stand alone
Inside now
You've been deceived
No more relief
Face scared stiff with life
Burned down with fever
Stained with my final scars

Walk the line
Just once last time
Can't see at all
I watch them fall

Deny the source
And stay your course
It's in your hands
My future lies
