

The Backstrokes, Haunted Landscape

VERSE 1

Look into my eyes, I'm waiting here for you,
Take my hand, give in, I'll never let you lose,
We're so close now

Walk with me tonight, through land untouched by light,
Trust in me and see, the things you've only dreamed,
The time is at hand

CHORUS

Crystalline structures of time, hanging by water's edge
Your breath upon my face, your mem'ry haunting my fate
If you close your eyes and enter, then I will be with you at last.

VERSE 2

If you'll follow me, the places I will lead,
Will bring you to the edge, of real and fantasy,
Your eyes believing

Freedom from their lies, hope instead of fear,
Love you've never known, in midnight calm draws near,
I know you see me

BRIDGE

Follow me into a haunted landscape,
Voices sing but no one listens.
Follow me into the evening,
Moonlight draws a deep desire

VERSE 3

Just a moment more, our lives will become one,
Hand in hand we walk, to this land we come,
You won't turn back

The world you've left behind, will slowly yield to time,
But here where I draw breath, forever you'll be mine,
I'm waiting for you
