

The Banana Splits, I Enjoy Being A Boy (In Love With You)

Oh yeah

I live in a cucumber castle
On the bank of a cranberry sea
And starfish dance under my drawbridge
And blackbirds make nests in my tree

I enjoy being a boy in love with you
I enjoy being a boy in love with you
In love with you girl, oh yeah

I live in a purple plum mansion
In the mist of a strawberry stream
And mellifluous bells ring out softly
From a hill of vanilla fudge cream

I enjoy being a boy in love with you
I enjoy being a boy in love with you
In love with you girl, oh yeah

Baby, I enjoy being a boy in love with you
I enjoy being a boy in love with you
In love with you girl, oh yeah
