

The Beach Boys, Lahaina Aloha

Where the sea breeze
Sways the palm trees
Paradise awaits
And so does she
Reliving love
That was like a romance
From a page in history
It was the last place
That he stopped at
On the way back to his boat
She was dancing
Met his glancing
Like they say
&quot;It was all she wrote&quot;
You know I want to
But I can't stay (bye bye)
Girl you know I'm gonna sail away (sail away)
When the wind comes up
And when the sun goes down
I'll say &quot;goodbye&quot; to this Hawaiian town
I don't know what way you pull this shines [???)
You and Lahaina always on my mind
They left the dance floor
So they could spend more
Precious time near the water side
It wasn't wrong
And it wasn't right
They were two ships
Passing in the night
You know I want to
But I can't stay (bye bye)
Girl you know I'm gonna sail away (sail away)
When the wind comes up
And when the sun goes down
I'll say &quot;goodbye&quot; to this Hawaiian town
I think about you when the full moon shines
Lahaina always on my mind
You know I want to
But I can't stay (bye bye)
Girl you know I'm gonna sail away (sail away)
When the wind comes up
And when the sun goes down
I'll say &quot;goodbye&quot; to this Hawaiian town
I think about you when the full moon shines
Lahaina always on my mind
