

The Beautiful Mistake, Love Was Not Enough

Sometimes things go wrong
You don't realize the love until they're gone
Tried to save you
Was it enough that day?

And how long did it take?
And was it a mistake?
All these questions are still haunting me
Never had done wrong
Always acting strong
Why would you come steal this life from me?

From me..
How could this come to be
I want to see you
Maybe I will someday

And how long did it take?
And was it a mistake
All these questions are still haunting me
Never had done wrong
Always acting strong
Why would you come steal this life from me?

How could you hurt me?
My heart starts to flame
GO!
