

The Bens, Xfire

We're famous
Contagious
We make outrageous claims

Public enemy
The royal family
Game over
Pink Champagne

Let there be no doubt about it
You are dancing in my crossfire
Let there be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my crossfire)

The possibilites are endless
I can do almost anything
And the impossibilites are beginning-less
And meaningless

There will be no doubt about it
You are dancing in my crossfire
There will be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my crossfire)

There was this feeling I had (like you're going to the underworld)
I was your destination

(You are dancing in my crossfire) x2

Ooh
You raise me
I will amaze thee
Radio plays me
(You don't phase me)
I've got no sympathy
If you're not into me
Then you're the enemy
(Don't you me)

There will be no doubt about it
You are dancing in my crossfire
There will be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my crossfire)

You are dancing in my crossfire
(You are dancing in my crossfire)

There will be no doubt about it
There will be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my crossfire)
Let there be no doubt about it
Let there be no doubt about it
(You are dancing in my crossfire)
