

The Beta Band, Out-Side

cried so loud the song today the devil knows I couldn't get far went to the beach but I couldn't find the path tried to catch a train but it wasn't where I went (wanted to) catch a plane but it wasn't (where I flew) (all the time) I flew (just to get) back to you

I love your way (x2) wished I had the heart to (presume or) take it out-side take it outside just to catch a little rain catch a little rain just to pour a little (ride)

I love your way
I'm a-dreaming of you and it seems so very simple that I don't think that I can tell you and the knocking on my cranium reminds me of a tribal drum makes it sound a simple feeling can we go around (a-dreamin') crazy

I love your way
I'm a-dreaming of you
