

The Beta Band, The Hard One

Listen to me when I go outside
I have an opposite reaction in my mind
Blood clots up and my eyes look down
Mouth never changes from a darkened frown

Pulse starts jumping and feet won't move
Seventy quid for these new shoes
Heart beat pumping and move the floor
Head is banging on a darkened door

Once upon a time I was falling apart
Now I'm always falling in love x4

I only do the simple things
People around me run the rings
Left and right to fool the kid
Pass a little love and help me move the lid

Pressing all the buttons for the wrong way round
Mouth still sticking on a darkened frown
In and out and this and that
The butt and ben of chewing fat

I just can't seem to keep it up
The pressure of a house with a holy ghost
Pressure of a house with a holy ghost
Out house pressure is sure the most
Out of house pressure is sure the most

Once upon a time I was falling apart
Now I'm always falling in love
Once upon a time I was falling apart
Now I'm only falling in love x2
