one is the loneliest number that you'll ever do two can be as bad as one it's the loneliest number since the number one

cinematic synergy
a whole lotta energy
virtual reality
doomsday scenery
grab artillery - (?)

a whole lotta energy
doomsday scenery
grab artillery
burn the flag steadily depression driving a brand new chevy water erase a liquid sunflower verbal abuser underneath the stone shower power in the hour moon in the flower for alone one is a glorious number in the darkest days touch our brightest ways raincloud penetrating gray sunrays electric rain virtual mud east the river Nile babylonian flood won't stay in the shadow i'm asking for food on plate unborn face still behind heaven's gate for universe sake drink soda grape high indigo skies wrapped in homicide scene blondie said the tide is high bobby-dee don't cry just dry your eye with the bamboo sticks and the georgia sky black goo bubbling on blueberry pie the praying mantis grasshopper flew everything old is everything new nightmares first degree murder déjà vu this is what you know what you don't know is the clue

new york rats running all around mars how many nightmares imprisoned in scars doctor chivago's cream creates wars insecurity melts skulls in stores inhale your thoughts and exhale your wishes before i trace the vocals i gotta do the dishes (TOO HARD)
wanna see music through the eyes of stevie
