

The Beu Sisters, Unbelievable You

You knew me
Long before I knew myself
I could not see
With all the darkness who could tell
Then suddenly before my eyes
The sun began to rise

Unbelievable you
Till the morning came
Gave me shelter from the storm
Unbelievable you, made me smile again
To have and to hold and to keep me warm
Never though I could be someone
That this could happen to
Unbelievable you

I've been blessed
You took my dreams and made them real
This, I guess is how they always said I'd feel
Just when I thought I'd fall apart
You filled the hole within my heart

Unbelievable you
Till the morning came
Gave me shelter from the storm
Unbelievable you, made me smile again
To have and to hold and to keep me warm
Never though I could be someone
That this could happen to
Unbelievable you
You opened up your heart
And showed me how to be
When you said to me
