

The Black Keys, Baby I'm Coming Home

Patiently awaiting for me
To close the tab and hurry home
The streets are paved with broken dreams
And fantasies that we've outgrown

Sadie, I'll be coming home
Baby, save me from the road
Yeah, baby, I'm coming home

I buy the things that make you smile
And send them with a kiss
The road is winding home
And only you know what I've really missed

Sadie, I'll be coming home
Baby, save me from the road
Yeah
