

The Black Keys, Something On Your Mind

(We're rolling)

Yesterday,
Anyway you made it was just fine, darlin',
So you turn your days into nighttime,

But you didn't know,
You can't make it without,
Ever tryin', tryin', tryin',
Something's on your mind,

Let this time,
Show you that you're breaking up your mind,
Leaving all your dreams too far behind,

Didn't you see,
You can't make it without,
Ever tryin', tryin', tryin',

Maybe another day,
You'll feel another way,
But you...can't stop cryin',
Haven't got a thing to say,
Feel you wanna run away,
There's no use tryin',

I've seen writing along the wall,
Who cannot maintain you'll always fall,

Well, you know,
You can't make it without,
Ever tryin', tryin', tryin',
There's something on your mind,
Your mind.
