

The Black League, Lost in the Shadows, I walk Alone

Lost in the shadows...

I walk alone

Lost in the shadows...

Deep in the shadows of my soul

Lost in the shadows, I walk alone

'cause there ain't nobody home

Lost in the shadows, I walk alone

1000000 miles away from home!

Lost in the shadows...

Lost in the twilight truth

I was lost in the illusion of youth

Couldn't bear the night no more

Lost in a lifeless void

I'm lost in my soul

Scan so much my eyes are more

Blame it on the moonless nights

Or blame it on the days that I died

Lost in the shadows of my soul

Lost in the shadows...
