

The Bluetones, Broken Starr

Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake, and shine for me.
Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake.
Light the road before me
At the end of the day, Ill be losing my way.
So I look to you and I say:
Yeah, yeah.
Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake, and shine for me.
Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake.
Light the road before me.
Such a wonderful glow, from a long time ago.
And far far away.
Diamonds and silver pouring from your gaping head.
Bathe me in silhouette though I know youre already dead.
Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake, and shine for me.
Broken star, stay awake.
Stay awake.
Light the road before me.
As the sparks start to fly, I look up to the sky, and hold you in my eye.
Smile down from heaven as we dismiss all we learn.
Fixed to the spot whilst all around the universe turns.
