

The Bluetones, Sleazy Bed Track

I know its getting late.
But if youd like to talk a little more.
Well thats alright with me.
Im feeling kinda tired.
But it aint exactly beating down my door.
Now just why could this be?
And I know I shouldnt say.
But youve been acting strange the last few days.
And this has made me think.
Your pills have cost too much.
And you cant feel them working any more.
So pour them down the sink.
And listen to me.
All youve gotta do is baby kick off your shoes and lay down.
Climb up here with me and lets forget about sleep, and lay down.
Why hide your face from me?
Why turn away?
All I wanna do is pull you closer and say:
Im feeling kinda tired.
But it aint exactly beating down my door.
Now just why could this be?
Will you listen to me?
All youve gotta do is baby kick off your shoes and lay down.
Climb up here with me and lets forget about sleep, just lay down with me.
Lay down next to me.
Lay down with me.
I know I shouldnt say.
But youve been acting strange the last few days.
And this has made me think, you know it got me thinking.
Your pills have cost too much.
And you cant feel them working any more.
So pour them all right down the sink.
