The Boomtown Rats, Up All Night

Up all night Ooh za za Ooh staying up all night

African jungle Big city street The only real difference is in The people you meet

Up all night Ooh za za Ooh staying up all night

It's an agreeable town It's neat and sedate Why even the muggers are off The streets by eight

Up all night
Ooh za za
Ooh staying up all night
Say it ain't so Joe, say it ain't so Joe

Polite and well spoken Well heeded and well sane They know they're alive When they start to feel pain

You're staying up all night
Ooh za za
Ooh staying up all night
Up all night
Ooh za za
Ooh staying up all night
Say it ain't so Joe, say it ain't so Joe

Big city jungle African street The only real difference is in The people they meet
