

The BossHoss, Rodeo Radio

we jumped onto the van, had this job to do the other night quite far to go put the pedal to the metal, let the engine rattle just headin' for the very next show we smelled like a bar hung over in the car just tryin' to get a little bit of sleep but russ just said "boys its beer o'clock no quitters on the highway to hell let the cigarettes burn, the booze go round the radio's playing our favorite sound

ref:

rodeo radio - no MTV all and more rodeo radio - no more no less, yearning for rode radio - we want rodeo radio.... well the party in the van just started to boil we still had one hour to got when a cop-car passed and they pulled us out and a little fat sucker just started to shout "we don't like you kinda folks around here, so you better hit the road fuck off" so we payed our bill, put the pedal to the metal in the moonshine when we drove off

let the cigarettes burn, the booze go round
the radios playing our favorite sound we arrived at the club quite late that night the whole crowds waiting for us to start we played a rocknroll show way out of control kicked asses and the girls kept fainting in the first row the party backstage just blew our heads off whished that we could have a day-off but no way, next gigs quite far to go so we hopped into the van, put the pedal to the metal we smelled like a bar hung over in the car
