

The Bouncing Souls, Better Days

What do you do when she don't love you anymore?
What do you do when she wont hold you anymore?
Living in sin, now you're all alone again.
She's having a change of heart
without a word everything just falls apart
What do you do when she don't love you anymore?
What do you do when she wont hold you anymore?
Two lovers walking through life together
Tender kisses and all the sweet things they used to say

Memories from better days

Everything we built
Everything that i believed in...
Just some old fashioned fantasy.
