

The Bouncing Souls, Inside Out

It's incredible we try to be apart of something
It's amazing how we feel alone when we're never seperate
It's so funny how we weave a web of our own destruction.
Then we find in the end we fought so hard to be apart of something

To feel someone beside you is beautiful in life
But to feel a wholeness inside is the greatest feeling
There is nothing that can take that away

We're never alone

To feel someone beside you is beautiful in life
But to feel a wholeness inside
Is the greatest feeling of all
