

The Bucks, Punk Rockers

just gimme something out of your nothing I wanna touch some veiled facets superiority put up for somebody dont wanna watch talking puppets some know the way to come some know the way to go some just dont wanna know no need for explainin it no need for doin your bit nothing to lecture on punk rockers
are united forever and a day they stand by the thing they are doing always going their own way well if I think again dont wanna know it then dont wanna touch your nothing some go their own way moreover they stand by the thing they do that aint a clear thing cause its a real thing no definition, no clue as long as theres some shit someones producin it society put your foot down!
are united forever and one day
always going their own way
punk rockers
always going their own way
