

The Buzzcocks, Blue Eyes

My aches are all aching
Opportunities taken
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way that it happens

Sick and tired of this love thing
Like I'm tired of everything
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way that it happens
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way that it happens

Blue eyes blue eyes
I tried to teach you everything
Blue eyes blue eyes
You thought you could do anything

Your ideas of pleasure
Are best taken at leisure
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way it all happens

I've this deep-felt suspicion
For your so-called tradition
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way that it happens
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way it all happens

Blue eyes blue eyes

You said I could do anything
But you've gone too far
Blue eyes blue eyes
You thought you would do everything
But you've gone too far

The loneliest sound I've ever heard
Was the slamming of the door
I don't know whose side you think you're on
But you make love like a tug of war

Sick and tired of this love thing
Like I'm tired of everything
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way that it happens
I'll be alright in a minute
It's funny though innit
The way it all happens

Blue eyes blue eyes
I thought I'd show you everything
Blue eyes blue eyes
You wouldn't show me anything

Blue eyes blue eyes
I thought we could be anything
Blue eyes truth lies
At the center of everything
