The Buzzcocks, Useless

Life's full of disappointments Wonder where the good times went Craving for recognition Rather than accomplishment

Nobody cares what your name is And it's gonna stay that way Everything is off the record Face it, there's nothing to say Life's only temporary And then you fucking die

It's a useless situation
Can't you see that I'm between
Patience and persuasion
Every single time

Mingling amongst the masses That much would be enough You used to be my rival Quit when the going gets rough

I never witnessed the moment When all you ever wanted was me Understand now the penny's dropped Pissed off bunny, not happy Don't want to think about it It makes me fucking mad

It's a useless situation Can't you see that I'm between Patience and persuasion Every single time

It's a useless situation Can't you see that I'm between Patience and persuasion Every single time

I never witnessed the moment When all you ever wanted was me Understand now the penny's dropped Pissed off bunny, not happy Life's only temporary And then you fucking die

It's a useless situation Can't you see that I'm between Patience and persuasion Every single time

It's a useless situation Can't you see that I'm between Patience and persuasion Every single time