

The Byrds, There Must Be Someone (I Can Turn

There must be someone I can turn to Someone like me, lonely too
All my life I've been alone, got no friends, got no home
And there must be someone I can turn to

Well all my so called friends have turned their backs on me
They were lookin' for someone I just couldn't be Let them go and have their fun, unaware of the harm they've done
And there must be someone I can turn to

Now if all the tears that I should have cried are still inside me
Why can't a man be accepted for what he has to be
Must I live my whole life through not knowin' what to do
Oh there must be someone I can turn to
Turn to, turn to, turn to
Oh there must be someone I can turn to
Turn to, turn to, turn to
