

The Car Is On Fire, Love

Love

It was a beautiful plan

I got myself a gun

I hate the early dawns

Love

I love to ride my bike

You don't know what it's like

My pals are Paul and Mike

I love you

Were it for the fact we weren't too close to each other

I love you

Love

Who do we talk about us?

A red brick on the grass

Some things shouldn't pass

Love

A fish across the moon

Reminding me of you

Breaking a hole in through

I love you

Some will say that all you get from living is believing

That's not true

(I love you)

If I had to choose

To live forever doing nothing

Or to choose to have you near me

For two seconds and then die

I guess the choice would not be difficult

For a second we would kiss and then

Together we'll do nothing

For the rest of time we got
