

The Car Is On Fire, Ombarrops!

In this life, in this life full of boundaries
We should appreciate all the victories
In this life, in this life full of boundaries

See that red mattress down there
Do you feel like that mattress down there?

So you quit everything, got yourself a pick
With the salt on your shoes, and the best of it
In this life, in this life full of boundaries

You don't have to break down
You don't have to break down
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid
