

The Cardigans, Give Me Your Eyes

Oh girl, look at yourself
What have you done?
What have you become?
Well, I couldn't say

Slow down and think of your heart
Where do you go?
How how am I supposed to know
I'm always looking away

Give me your eyes
So I can see me straight
Give me your eyes
I can't tell night from day

Give me your eyes
So I can see me straight
Give me your eyes
And watch me walk away
yeah, yeah

I took a look at myself
Nothing inside
Except cigarettes and wine
Where there should be a life

You've been watching me for a while
And you like what you see
It's in the eyes of the beholder
Now give them to me

(Chorus... Give me your eyes)

Oh, mirror mirror on the wall
Mirror mirror made no reply
Mirror went black and cracked
From side to side

Oh girl, look at yourself
What have you done?
What have you become you know the camera don't lie

(Chorus... Give me your eyes)
