

The Cardigans, Nasty Sunny Beam

I can't get out of bed
Can't get my dreams out
Of my sleepy head

I open up my eyes
And wonder where you are
But soon I realize
That you're not real
And I am

In between of day and dream
Life and death a lazy stream
In between of day and dream
Hello, goodbye
You nasty sunny beam

I try to seal my mind
Get back to where you were
You were that perfect kind
You drove me crazy somewhere

In between of day and dream
Life and death a lazy stream
In between of day and dream
Hello, goodbye
You nasty sunny beam

I'm floating down again
And my world is a syrup waterfall
I can't remember when
Or where or why

In between of day and dream
Life and death a lazy stream
In between of day and dream
Hello, goodbye
You nasty sunny beam
