The Cardigans, Your New Cuckoo

Words: Persson, Svensson

Music: Svensson

I saw you there I stopped and stared the curly girlie smiled You really were too close to her and people just went by

I saw your face and her embrace your whisper in her ear I know the score 'cause I've heard it before I read your lips with fear

Your words were clear (you said:)

La-la-la-la-la let's say forever, let's say it's true la-la-la-la-lalet's come together, me and you la-la-la-la-la your new cuckoo
