

The Carpenters, Looking For Love

Always have said there is a thing called love

And in my life, I said the word a thousand times

Looking around I can see lovers, lost in a world that's all their own

Though people say love is everywhere,

I'm looking for love, but it's just not there

I live my life growing from day to day

Hoping I'll find someone who cares

Though people say love is everywhere,

I'm looking for love, but it's just not there

I'm looking for love, but it's just not there
